

We tell you on websites our values and our way to act for better future

You can plant a tree and buy a certificate. We pay 10€ to Natrue conservation. This is our concept called Love Forest Finland.

Our promise: we follow the newest international research and trends to be able to offer new ideas and innovations in responsible way

Public transport and joint transport are the first options for us. We always inform you the best way to arrive.

Our clothes, equipment, materials and other sources have a story to tell. It's our way to show respect to local designers, artisans and craftsmen/-women. Our certificates are printed in hand made paper in Finnish Lapland.

We cooperate with others and pay fair fees. We are ready to pay more to get more qualified and ethically fair products and services. Hopefully you respect the same values.

You are supporting circular economy as buying a service is always better choice than buying more stuff. As a souvenir we recommend to plant a tree of love

We take care of recycling of the waste caused during our services. Let's keep our nature clean.

We use renewable energy (solar) for electricity and heating. We kindly ask you to save energy.

We kindly ask you to use your own bottle to fill it with tap water and not to buy plastic bottles. Tap water is drinkable everywhere in Finland

We have risk and safety plans for our nature based activities and always updated first aid skills.

When experiencing our services you can taste the local food, meet local people and trust that we take you only to such places where visitors are welcome.

When visiting the nature, let's follow the marked trails. Our activities are based on slow, silence and simple activities.

Ethically responsible product and service chains are the must choice in our operations. You can trust that the ethics of the services has been checked.

in case you have some special needs such as disability or special diet, please, get in touch so we look for the best possible solutions

You are our guest and we treat you equal, no matter your race, colour, sexual orientation, or ethnic background.

We appreciate your feedback! We also promise to answer to all questions and react to mentions in social media
